

Language and Literacy Conference

14 March
2019
9.30 - 15.45

Who for?

Those working to support children and young people who have difficulties with developing language and literacy skills.

Why?

Strengthen your approach to identification and intervention for children and young people in your settings and assess the impact of what you do.

Hertfordshire Development Centre
Six Hills Way Stevenage SG1 2FQ

The day will start with a keynote speech from Mary Hartshorne, Head of Evidence at the communication charity, ICAN. Mary will link the importance of language development to later literacy skills.

Education Psychologists, Speech and Language Therapists, SLCN teachers and Specialist SpLD outreach teachers, will share good practice in this area of SEND.

There will be sessions on identification of difficulties such as vocabulary development, reading for understanding, spelling and practical suggestions to support appropriate interventions.

The key themes will be identification, intervention and considering impact.
