ADD-VANCE

ADD-vance
The ADHD and Autism Trust

Parents & Carers

Here at ADD-vance we are passionate about supporting families. This is because we all live in a family with members affected by ADHD, Autism or a related condition. In our opinion, nobody understands living with additional needs more than the parents who have walked the walk, not just talked the talk. This is why all our trainers, coaches and most of our admin staff are parents or carers of children or young people with ADHD, Autism or a related condition. We know that sometimes we all just need a helping hand, whether that be a simple chat to another parent in the same position or something a bit more structured, like a few sessions with a professional and understanding coach. We offer a range of services throughout Hertfordshire aimed at helping parents and carers to understand and support these complex conditions.

Assessment Project

We are excited to announce that The Assessment Team have teamed up with ADD-vance to provide free ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder) or ASD (Autism Spectrum Disorder) assessment for children in Hertfordshire who are in primary school years 5 & 6 and are eligible for free school meals. SUPPORT WITH EDUCATION

EHCP INFORMATION

EHCP Information

What is an Education, Health and Care plan? (EHCP)

An education, health and care plan (EHCP) is a legally binding document that:

- describes all of the special education, health and care needs of the child or young person which relate to their disability
- sets out all of the extra help and support they will need to overcome barriers to learning
- identifies meaningful education and other outcomes they would like to achieve as they prepare for adult life.

The EHCP process in Hertfordshire

1. Requesting an EHC assessment

This is usually done in partnership with your child or young person's educational setting, or if your child does not attend one, you could speak to your GP or health visitor.

2. Deciding whether an EHC assessment is needed

Not everyone meets the criteria for an EHC needs assessment. If we (Hertfordshire County Council) decide not to assess, we will let you know why.

3. What happens during the EHC assessment

Professionals such as teachers and health professionals provide information for the assessment. If it is concluded that special educational provision is needed to meet your child's needs, you will get an EHCP.

4. The EHCP document itself

We (Hertfordshire County Council) create EHCPs together with families. An EHCP should be a forward looking document, centred on your child's own future goals, and how they can achieve them.

5. Reviewing the EHCP

You will be offered a review of the EHCP at least once a year to ensure it stays up-to-date and continues to provide the best support your child or young person needs. There are different types of review, if your child is aged between 0-5 for example, or if there's been a change in your circumstances such as changing schools.

NHPSS

North Herts Primary Support Service

North Herts Primary Support Service (NHPSS) is a commissioned service providing social, emotional and mental health (SEMH) support for pupils in Letchworth, Baldock and Royston partnership areas.

North Herts ESC have created the North Herts Primary Support Service (NHPSS) to provide primary support services to Letchworth, Baldock and Royston schools.

The baseline outcomes are that pupils worked with by the NHPSS will make positive progress and achievement. Engage in learning as a result of the work done with their social, emotional and mental health difficulties, allowing them to access a full curriculum by helping to remove their barriers to learning.

As part of this support we expect to have varying parental contact, especially for pupils who require complex support to meet their needs. This can include but not limited to: regular meetings, input into EHCP process and involvement within the safeguarding sector.

Contact NHPSS via email: supportservices@northhertsesc.herts.sch.uk More information including our GDPR policy can be found on our website: www.northhertsesc.herts.sch.uk (Please click on Our Services, then Primary Outreach)

DSPL 1

Delivering Special
Provision Locally

North Herts DSPL1 Area 1 - Hitchin, Letchworth, Baldock and Royston

What is Delivering Special Provision Locally (DSPL)?

DSPL is a Hertfordshire-wide partnership approach where parents, carers, staff in early years settings and schools, further education colleges, local authority officers and representatives from other agencies, work together as part of an Area Group, to ensure that there is a range of provision and support services available in their local community that :

NESSIE

Many children and young people we support are anxious about talking to a therapist. This could be because they have experienced trauma; they may be fostered or adopted; they may be neurodivergent; or perhaps they prefer more flexible, creative approaches.

We support the mental health of children and young people in three ways:

We offer 1-1 and group therapy for children and young people

We offer training and supervision to professionals

We offer webinars and support to parents and carers.

We provide support through partnering with local schools, county councils and community organisations within Hertfordshire, Cambridgeshire, Peterborough and the surrounding counties. Parents can also reach out to us directly.

Nessie is funded to provide free support in many locations, and schools or families can also fund support directly.

Together our therapists have over 200 years of experience. We welcome diversity and have specialist Arts, trauma, SEND and LGBTQ+ therapists within our team. We receive excellent feedback.

Our long history of working relationships with local statutory and community partners means we can effectively signpost people to the best support in your area.

SUPPORT AT HOME

FAMILY SUPPORT WORK

School Partnership Family Support Workers

Providing a quality family support service with experienced and qualified Family Support Workers.

Why a Family Support Worker?

Referrals to our support service come through your child's school and are only provided with parental consent. We can help with a number of things relating to your child and family life. This could be signposting the right services, attending appointments with you, help completing forms, concerns over debt or perhaps giving guidance on trying new routines to help at home.

How it works

Your child's school will discuss with you why they think a referral will be beneficial. If you are unsure at this stage, one of our team members could meet with you at your child's school. Once you have agreed to the referral and have consented to our intervention, one of our team members will call you to arrange an initial meeting. This could be held at our offices in Hitchin, at your child's school or in your home.

Together we would hope to:

- Promote family led approaches that are realistic and sustainable for you.
- Identify strengths, help to build upon self-esteem and confidence to sustain changes.
- Offer regular meetings together to review progress and barriers.
- Work alongside you as a professional friend.

If you feel you could benefit from family support, please contact your child's school who can make a referral.

SUPPORT AT HOME

INTENSIVE FAMILY SUPPORT TEAMS (IFST)

Intensive Family Support Teams

The Intensive Family Support teams (IFST) work with families with multiple and complex needs who would benefit from intensive support.

The help they provide depends on each family's situation, but examples of issues they help with include:

- parenting skills
- improving school attendance
- training to help find a job
- help with housing problems
- managing money and debt.

There is no age focus for the service, as long as there is a dependent child (under 18) in the family.

The focus instead is to provide practical support to the whole family, when there is evidence of 4 of the following presenting issues being a concern to professionals across more than 1 family member, or the family are identified as requiring intensive whole family support which no other services are available to provide:

- parents or children involved in crime or anti-social behaviour
- children who have not been attending school regularly
- children who need help (for example they have had an assessment in the last year)
- adults out of work or at risk of financial exclusion or young people at risk of worklessness
- families affected by domestic violence and abuse
- parents or children with a range of health problems.

If you feel your family might benefit from some support, there are two ways to get in touch with a Families First professional:

1. Contact a professional who already works with your family, for example a health visitor, family support worker, teacher or school, youth worker, family centre or Carers in Herts.
 2. Contact our customer service centre 0300 123 4043
- Phone lines are open: Mon - Fri 8am - 8pm, Saturday 9am - 4pm

SUPPORT AT HOME

HOME-START

Home-Start works with families in communities right across the UK. Starting in the home, our approach is as individual as the people we're helping. No judgement, it is just compassionate, confidential help and expert support.

Home-Start Hertfordshire provides families struggling with post-natal depression, isolation, physical health problems, bereavement and many other issues the support of a volunteer family mentor who will spend around two hours a week in a family's home. Through practical and emotional support, they make sure parents have the skills, confidence and strength they need to nurture their children.

The model works because our family mentors are parents or have experience in caring for children. They understand how hard it can be. They work alongside parents, in their own homes, to help them cope with the stresses and strains of life and be the best parent they can be.

Areas covered by Home-Start Herts:

- North Herts
- Stevenage
- East Herts
- Dacorum
- St Albans
- Welwyn and Hatfield

Families can refer themselves or can (with the parent's permission) be referred by health, or other relevant professionals, who have concerns.

SUPPORT AT HOME

STAND-BY-ME

We work with bereaved children, young people (aged 18 and under) and their families in NORTH HERTS and STEVENAGE.

The Groupwork Programme

Run over 7 sessions our therapeutic groupwork programme is staffed by a dedicated team of highly trained volunteers who make sure that every child, young person, and their parent/carers feels safe and supported throughout their time with us. The group provides a safe space to share their experiences and emotions with others who understand how it feels when someone close to them dies, allowing them to see that they are not alone. Our groups for both the children and young people and their parent/carers are run concurrently and throughout the 7 sessions will join for certain activities.

Young Ambassadors Programme

The programme aims to give those young people, whom have attended a group and who would like the opportunity, the chance to work with the Stand-by-me team. Their role is to share their experiences with other bereaved young people and their families and show that it is possible to look forward to a more positive future – even when things may seem at their worst.

As a group they raise awareness of the needs of bereaved children, get involved with fundraising and events, as well as learning some new skills such as event organising, marketing, fundraising, and public speaking.

Post-Group Counselling for Parents/Carers

Bereavement affects all of us at some stage in our lives and grief can turn your world upside down. Family members may experience different challenges in many aspects of life whilst grieving the reality of loss and continuing with the process of living.

As a parent/carer of a child who has attended our 7-week group programme we are able to offer you a safe, supportive place to talk in confidence about emotional issues. Your counsellor will listen without judgement and will focus on you and your world. You will not be directed in any specific way, but will be offered an opportunity, with your counsellor alongside, to look within yourself as you reflect on what you are going through.

Your challenges are unique to you. Whatever you choose to talk about will be received with empathy and respect.

Telephone helpline

To help families at this difficult time, we offer a telephone helpline, 07469 255139, for parents, carers, and professionals.

Our trained Stand-by-me Advisors can offer advice and information on how to handle difficult conversations and hopefully relieve at least a little of the worry and stress that these conversations can cause.

SAFE SPACE

Safe Space offers children and young people across Hertfordshire a creative, confidential and safe space to explore any issues affecting their everyday lives. The service provides therapeutic support to children and young people via counselling and arts therapy (art, play and drama therapy), as well as mentoring for secondary aged young people.

Counselling and arts therapy is available for 5-19 year olds (up to 21 years with care leavers), with sessions typically taking place within school or college. If the child/young person is not attending an educational establishment, arrangements can be made where possible to see them in an alternative, appropriate space or via online support.

There is a cost attached to these provisions. Depending on the circumstances of the child or young person, funding may be available to support the work.

Mentoring involves the young person meeting with a volunteer mentor for an hour a week in a public place such as a coffee shop or engaging in a social activity, where they can talk and get advice on whatever they would like support with. Typically a mentoring relationship lasts for 6 months. Mentoring is available for *11 – 19 year olds (up to 21 for care leavers and 25 for LDD). * young person aged 11 must be in secondary school.

More detail on the provisions available and information on how to make a referral can be found here: Counselling in schools and mentoring | Hertfordshire County Council.

SUPPORT AT HOME

MEDIATION HERTFORDSHIRE

Mediation Hertfordshire is a not for profit organisation offering mediation and conflict resolution services to those experiencing disputes in the community, the family, in schools and in the workplace. We also offer training about conflict resolution.

What is Mediation?

Mediation is a form of dispute resolution where communication between the parties to a dispute is supported by a third party, the mediator, with a view to helping the parties reach an agreement to resolve their differences.

How does it work?

Many disputes arise because people make assumptions about what someone else is thinking or why they are behaving in a certain way. Mediation enables both parties to explain their experience of the dispute to each other in a safe and supported environment. Mediation enables all parties to feel heard and the Mediator will help the parties to find their own solutions to the dispute.

What is the Process?

At Mediation Hertfordshire, once we receive a referral form and we have confirmed that we have funding to help you, we will contact both parties and seek to arrange initial and individual meetings. In the unlikely event that there is no funding available we will contact you to advise of our fixed fee mediation service. At least 95% of cases that we undertake are fully funded.

Mediation Hertfordshire operates Countywide and mediations take place at a variety of neutral venues across Hertfordshire that are accessible and convenient for the parties involved.

The details for our administrative hub and our address for postal communications is Mediation Hertfordshire, 3 Halsey Drive, Hemel Hempstead Hertfordshire HP1 3SE.

Telephone 01442 268044 and 01442 243402. Mobile number 07925 512587 (text anytime and we will reply during office hours).

RISE

Child to Parent Violence

The 'Positive Relationships' Child to Parent Violence Programme is an evidence-influenced, Non-violent Resistance (NVR) intervention that aims to enhance the protection and safety of all family members.

Child to parent violence is defined as a harmful act carried out by a child with the intention to cause physical, psychological, or financial pain or to exert power and control over a parent. In other words, a child or adolescent's behaviour should be considered violent and abusive if family members feel controlled, intimidated or threatened by it.

The programme consists of 10 sessions for the parent(s) and 6 sessions for the young person. The parent(s) and young people attend the sessions separately, with the possibility of a con-joint session at the end is deemed to be helpful by both the young person and the parent(s). Ideally, the sessions are delivered in parallel. Both parents are encouraged to attend whenever possible, even if they are living separately.

The focus on therapeutic support and applying an NVR approach encourages participants to break unhelpful patterns and to build on the resources within the family and wider networks in reinforcing a commitment to non-violence.

The aims of the Positive Relationships programme are to:

- To end incidents of abusive behaviour by the child towards their parent;
- To increase respectful communication and appropriate parent-child boundaries in the family;
- To increase family resilience through building family support networks and expanding on family strengths.

For further details on the Positive Relationships programme, please contact us at info@risemutual.org.
